6. COMPETITIONS

Competition Rules

The “Competition Rules for IOF Foot Orienteering Events”, valid from 1 March 2011 are applied. Participation restrictions, classes and qualification are in compliance with the “Special Rules for 2011 World Cup in Orienteering”.

Terrain

Broken terrain in a hilly spruce forest with many valleys and ridges. The terrain offers a variety of details which are the vestiges of former mining activities. Granite stones, cliffs and boulders cover the whole area in a variable concentration creating stone labyrinths in some locations. Valleys are characterized by streams and marshes. The whole competition area is covered with a network of forest roads and paths. Visibility and runnability is generally very good, limited only by young forest which covers app. 20% of the area. In peripheral parts of the forest areas with the seasonal vegetation can occur.

Since on Saturday the World Cup and the Public competitions have the common competition area, on Sunday there may appear on Sunday smaller tracks created by runners of Public competition.
